Social Programme for Participants and Partners

Wednesday, August 26

4:30 pm Excursion to Täby Church, famous for its 15th century murals. Have a look at some of the work of Albertus Pictor, who did the walls and ceiling of Täby Church, including the picture of playing chess with Death that inspired Bergman to make his famous movie called The Seventh Seal: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Albertus_Pictor. We meet up at the English Department room E 890 at 4:30 pm. We'll finish at about 6 pm, and guide you back to the underground line to town. Price for the excursion €5.

Thursday, August 27

7 pm Informal get-together at a pub downtown.
[Still in the planning stages....]

Friday, August 28

7 pm Conference Dinner at the Faculty Club, near the T-bana (underground) entrance; bear left as you come out of the station called Universitet (the same as for our conference).
Price for the dinner €40.

Saturday, August 29

1:15 pm Refreshments in room E 890 followed by an excursion to the Rune-Stone Realm (around Lake Vallentuna).
After our post-workshop social gathering the excursion takes off from the parking lot behind the university buildings at 2:30 sharp. David Minugh will lead us on this very Scandinavian tour. Please wear walking shoes, and if appropriate, rain gear (check the sky and/or the weather report). Back by 6 pm.
Price for the excursion: € 10.

More information available in August (check the version number!).
